John A. O'Brien.

Friends in this city have learned with regret of the death of John A. O'Brien, formerly of New Castle, which occurred Wednesday afternoon at his home in Pittsburg. The funeral was held Friday morning, interment being made in Pittsburg.

Mr. O'Brien was formerly proprietor of the Lincoln hotel in this city, and in this way, established an extensive acquaintanceship. He was a member of St. Mary's church. His wife, who survives him, with one child, was before her marriage, Miss Elizabeth Boyle of this city. He leaves also two brothers.
