

TWO WEDDINGS AT ST. MARY'S

Miss Mary Boyle and Mr. John J. Boyle, and Miss Rose Kearns and Mr. John McIntee
Are Wed.

Promptly at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning was solemnized the wedding of Miss Rose Kearns of this city, and Mr. John McIntee of Lowellville. Rev. Father Maher officiated and the ceremony took place at St. Mary's church.

The church was filled with relatives and friends of the young couple. The bride wore a pretty gown of white mousseline and carried a white prayer book. Her sister, Miss Margaret Kearns, was the bride's maid. She was dressed in a gown of white mulle and carried pink roses. — Both young ladies wore beautiful picture hats.

Mr. James McIntee of Lowellville, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. After the ceremony the bridal party were driven to the home of the bride's parents on the Borough line, where a wedding breakfast was served. The house decorations were in pink and white.

Miss Kearns is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kearns of this city. Mr. McIntee is the son of Mrs. Ellen McIntee of Lowellville, where the young couple will reside until the completion of their new home in Youngstown. Later they left for a trip to Cleveland, Detroit, and other interesting points. Guests were present from Youngstown, Pittsburg, Hubbard, Lowellville, and Mont Clair, N. J.

At 9 o'clock Wednesday morning Miss Mary Boyle of Elm street, became the bride of Attorney John J. Boyle of Youngstown. The attendants were Miss Catherine Boyle, a sister of the bride and Mr. James McHahan acted as best man for the groom.

The bride who is an attractive young lady, was handsomely gowned in white and wore a veil of white silk tulle and carried a shower bouquet of roses. Her maid was pretty in a beautiful white gown and wore a white picture hat.

Rev. Father O'Shea officiated and the church was filled with friends and relatives. Later a wedding feast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Boyles of Walter street.

A wedding jaunt will follow after which the happy couple will reside in Youngstown, where the groom is a prominent young attorney.
