Her sister, Miss Ella Quinn, who acted as bridesmaid, wore a pink panne velvet with a black hat and a corsage of pink roses. Bernard McAleer of Pittsburgh, a brother of the groom, acted as best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride with 30 covers laid. Pink and yellow tea roses were used as centerpieces at the table. After the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. McAleer left for several months visit in Denver, Colorado and other western points.
