

JOSEPH P. BOYLE, M.Ed.
943 Fairview Ave., Bowling Green OH, 43402
Tel: +1 419 575 0880
E-mail: jpb@boylemedia.com

I. Academic Degrees

Date	Degree	Major	University
2008	M.Ed.	Curriculum & Teaching	Bowling Green State University
2004	Ohio license	AYA Social Studies	Bowling Green State University
1998	B.A.	History	Bowling Green State University

II. Academic Positions

A. Positions

Rogers High School, Social Studies Teacher, 2004-present

- Led effort to improve social studies OGT scores, with 23% gain over four years through staff realignment, adapted curriculum, peer coaching, and community involvement.
- Chaired building-wide data team to analyze standardized test data to improve instruction.
- Strengthened community-school interaction through class academic projects and partnerships with local universities, civic organizations, and businesses.
- Volunteered with voter outreach efforts during school levy campaign.
- Served in extracurricular capacities, including chaperoning dances, scorekeeping at athletic tournaments, and participating in Challenge Day team.
- Elected department chair, 2007.

III. Research Interests

The focus of my research is on the effects of macro-scale societal or political trends and how they effect the micro-scale behavior of boards, administrators, teachers, and students.

Subcategories of research include:

- Modern-day effects of desegregation and school consolidation.
- Effects of social networking technology on social and academic growth of students.
- Preparation schemes for standardized tests.

IV. Publications

A. Journal articles

1. Refereed articles

Patterson, N.C., Misco, T.E., Boyle, J.P., & Prokes, C.E. (2007). Relevance Inescapable: Reverse chronology teaching of history. Manuscript submitted for publication.

Boyle, J.P. (2009). Orphan District: A case study in Northern consolidation and desegregation. Manuscript in production

V. Grants

Cassara, C., Boyle, J.P., & Brashear, T.L. (2008). Journalism PACT. Bowling Green State University Partners for Community Action, $15,000.00, funded.

VI. Teaching Experience or Academic Service

A. Adult education

Toledo Public Schools

Professional Development Workshop: Instructional Strategies That Work

Professional Development Workshop: OGT Review for Upperclassmen

B. High school courses

Rogers High School

Social Studies OGT Preparation

American Studies, 1877-present

Contemporary History, 1945-present

World Studies, 1750-present

Sociology

Psychology

VII. Curriculum development

A. Courses

Contemporary history (2006). Designed honors elective for college-bound juniors and seniors.

B. Other

Modifications of Instructional Strategies that Work curriculum (2007). Revisions included condensed timeline and activities better suited to implementation in urban schools.

VIII. Other professional experience

A. Owner, Joe Boyle Photography, 2002-present

• Built freelance photography business

• Developed diverse client base, including the Toledo Mud Hens, Toledo Children's Hospital, Toledo.com, the Sydney Lynn Welch Foundation, and dozens of brides, families, and high school seniors.

B. News editor, MSNBC-PencilNews for Kids, 1999-2002

• Supervised news content for PencilNews.com, MSNBC.com's content partner for grades 3-8. Wrote and produced original content from around the world. Managed 10 freelancers, two columnists, and one reporter.

- C. Reporter, Fort Wayne Journal Gazette, 1997-1999
- Covered three fast-growing counties for Indiana’s second-largest daily newspaper market. Responsible for generating story ideas, responding to spot-news events, photography as needed, and researching and compiling public records.
- X. Community service
- A. School
- Created and advised secret spirit society, “Code Red.”
 - School photographer, 2006-07.
 - “Powder Puff” football coach, 2007-present.
- B. Academic
- Ohio Council for the Social Studies Review Review Board, 2009-present
 - Responsible for reviewing academic articles for quarterly publication.
 - Guest speaker, Bowling Green State University, 2004-present
 - Participate as panelist and small group discussion leader each Spring for AYA social studies teachers regarding methods, job-hunting, and various other issues. Also taught select lessons or guest presented for Dr. Judith Jackson May, Dr. Nancy Patterson, Dr. Christopher Frey, and Dr. Sansanee Ohlson.
- C. Community
- District Staff Officer/CS, U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, 1999-2003
 - Volunteered with U.S. Coast Guard as auxiliary public affairs officer. Responsible for creation and maintenance of Web sites for active-duty, reserve, and auxiliary units throughout the Eastern United States; providing incident photography; and managing media relations as needed. Qualified for operations, 2002-03. Flotilla commander, 2002.
 - Religious education teacher, St. Aloysius Parish, 2009-present
 - Created new academic class for high school youth at mid-sized Catholic church. Developed lessons, participated in event planning, and worked with team of five youth ministers.
- XI. Membership in Professional Organizations
- Ohio Council for the Social Studies
American Federation of Teachers
- XII. Media Appearances
- | | | |
|---------|------------|---|
| WNWO-TV | Nov. 2008 | Spoke regarding use of MySpace social networking site as ‘digital role model’ for students. |
| WTOL-TV | March 2009 | Feature story regarding my door-to-door visits to | student homes in advance of the Ohio Graduation Tests.

BCSN Nov. 2009 Interview regarding selection as BCSN/Toledo Community Foundation 'Teacher of the Month.'

XIII. Honors and Awards

- A. BCSN/Toledo Community Foundation Teacher of the Month (November 2009)
- B. Toledo Public Schools District Pride Employee of the Month (March 2009)
 - Recognized for classroom and parental outreach efforts in advance of the 2009 Ohio Graduation Tests.
- C. Rogers High School "Mister Ram" (2008)
 - Voted as teacher of the year by school newspaper staff and senior class
- D. Lucas County Educational Service Center Teacher of the Month (April 2007)
 - Honored for work in the classroom and through extra-curricular activities.
- E. Alpha Delta Kappa scholarship (2004)
 - Granted book scholarship by Fulton County chapter of teaching sorority while student teaching at Delta Middle School.
- F. Special Operations Service Award (2003)
 - Decorated for team performance during maritime security and safety operations in Summer 2003.
- G. Award of Administrative Merit (2001)
 - Awarded the Coast Guard's third-highest auxiliary honor for communications services in District 9E.
- H. "State of Secrecy" awards (1999)
 - Reported as part of a statewide team on a series of articles illustrating how public records access was unconstitutionally denied. Series won a number of awards including the APME Freedom of Information Award and the Scripps Howard National Journalism Award.